

Survey Crew Chief
Taylor, MI

WADE TRIM is a full service engineering firm consistently recognized for our award winning solutions. We are currently seeking a highly motivated Survey Crew Chief in Taylor, MI.

Candidates must have a high school diploma and a minimum of four years related experience of land and/or construction survey. A valid driver's license is also required. Candidates should be self-motivated and able to work well with others. Typical responsibilities include:

- Conduct various types of surveying including boundary, topographic, ALTA/ACSM, subdivisions, construction stakeouts, etc.
- Must be proficient with the use of Trimble and Topcon survey equipment. (GPS, Robotics, Total Stations, Levels, and Data Collectors).
- Must be proficient with data collection use including Trimble Access data collection software.
- Interpret maps, plats, blueprints, and specifications
- Assist PM's with cost estimates, field operations.
- Perform various survey calculations
- Organize and maintain survey documentation
- Operate and maintain survey equipment
- Communicate project status to Project Managers and clients
- Research project information at the Registrar of Deeds
- Prepare forms and other paperwork in a timely manner
- Maintain a safe working environment

Wade Trim offers an excellent salary and benefits package that includes medical, dental, vision, life insurance, short and long-term disability coverage, education reimbursement, 401(k) including a company match and an employee stock program.

If you are looking for a challenging and rewarding career in a team-friendly environment, please submit your resume by visiting the Careers section of our web site at <http://www.wadetrim.com/careers/> and reference job number 541.

Wade Trim is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.