

Survey CADD Technician
Taylor, MI

WADE TRIM is a full service engineering firm consistently recognized for our award winning solutions. We are currently seeking a highly motivated Survey CADD Technician in Taylor, MI.

Candidates must have a high school diploma and a minimum of five years of related experience. Ability to read and comprehend plans and specifications is also required. An associate degree in a related field, experience with Arc GIS and AutoCAD Civil 3D is preferred. Candidates should be self-motivated and able to work well with others. Typical responsibilities include:

Provide drafting and design services by preparing and maintaining CAD/GIS models, surveying drawings and maps.

- Process field survey data including downloading, correcting and processing raw survey data on computer utilizing AutoCAD Civil 3D

- Calculate coordinates for field crew stakeout.

- Perform Field Surveys on an as needed basis.

- Assist Survey Crew Chief on an as needed basis.

- Prepare working drawings from conceptual layout to detailed finished product.

- Experience with Arc GIS, Microstation, and AutoCAD Civil 3D a plus

- Interpret maps, plats, blueprints, and specifications

- Organize and maintain survey documentation and field notes

- Research project information at the Registrar of Deeds

- Maintain a safe working environment

Wade Trim offers an excellent salary and benefits package that includes medical, dental, vision, life insurance, short and long-term disability coverage, education reimbursement, 401(k) including a company match and an employee stock program.

If you are looking for a challenging and rewarding career in a team-friendly environment, please submit your resume by visiting the Careers section of our web site at <http://www.wadetrim.com/careers/> and reference job number 543.

Wade Trim is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.